1. The borrower will be responsible for the return of the equipment in like condition as received. While the National Park service makes a visual inspection of all gear to ensure proper function and general cleanliness, we strongly encourage campers to double check the gear and to re-wash some items (such as cook kits) to their satisfaction. The National Park Service will machine wash sleeping bags in mild detergent and wipe down sleeping pads with disinfectant upon return but does not claim responsibility for the health and safety of any RFCC gear, nor the persons using them.
2. If loss or damage of the equipment occurs and determination is made that the loss or damage is a result of negligence, the borrower may lose the ability to check out equipment in the future.
3. Equipment cannot be loaned or transferred to a third party.
4. The borrower cannot modify the equipment in any way.
5. The borrower will make the equipment available at any time at the request of the National Park Service.

I have read the above information and confirm that I am at least 18 years of age, have successfully completed the Redwood Family Coastal Camp program, and agree to the terms and conditions herein contained.
